

Northeastern Political Science Association
Call for Papers
2004 Annual Meeting

November 11-13, 2004
Omni Parker House, Boston, MA

The Northeastern Political Science Association will hold its 36th annual meeting on November 11-13, 2004 at the Omni Parker House in Boston, Massachusetts. We invite paper, panel, and roundtable submissions from political scientists, political science graduate students, journalists and practitioners. Paper proposals should be submitted directly to appropriate Chair of the sections listed below. All proposals must include the information required in "Proposal Submission" section below. Only one paper submission per person will be accepted. If you are uncertain about your paper's placement, send the proposal to the Program Chair or contact him to clarify the appropriate section. Individuals are strongly encouraged to serve as panel chairs and/or discussants, and should send such requests to the appropriate section chairs. The deadline for proposals is Monday, May 17, 2004. There is always a strong need for faculty chairs and discussants. Graduate students will find the Northeastern a friendly venue.
